Ixon Bank Leadership Promotion Announcement

Carrie Rosenau promoted to Senior Vice President of Human Resources

Ixon Bank – December 2018: The Ixon Bank Board of Directors is proud to announce the promotion of Carrie Rosenau to Senior Vice President of Human Resources & Training where she will continue to further the growth and excellence of Ixon Bank and its staff.

“This promotion is a reflection of the significant leadership role Carrie plays in our organization,” states Dan Westrope, Chairman & CEO of Ixon Bank.” She has served as a valuable partner to the management teams, and has led the Bank’s efforts to provide quality benefits and compensation programs to our great crew of employees. Carrie clearly cares about the welfare of the staff of Ixon Bank and has worked tirelessly on behalf of the Bank and its people.”

As Senior Vice President, Carrie will continue to be responsible for recruitment efforts for the Bank, as well as supporting employee training and development, promoting a healthy and engaged workplace, and fostering a corporate culture focused on respect, integrity and teamwork. She additionally serves as Co-Chair for Ixon Bank’s Women in Business Initiative Team which is focused on supporting women business owners and leaders in professional and personal growth.

States Carrie, “I am truly grateful for all of the learning and growth opportunities I have been given at Ixon Bank. I work with wonderful people who have been strong mentors for me along the way. We take great pride in growing our people and promoting from within, and I am proud to be one of the many employees at Ixon Bank who have been given the guidance to success.”

Carrie joined Ixon Bank in 2005, and in her 13-year career with Ixon Bank she has served as a Customer Service Representative, a Relationship Banker, an Ixon Bank Wealth Management Assistant, a Branch Manager, and a Regional Manager before starting her role as Vice President of Human Resources in early 2017. Carrie is currently a member of the Society of Human Resource Management (SHRM) and is working toward her Professional in Human Resources (PHR) and/or Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) Certification. She also serves as a Co-Chair of Ixon Bank’s Women in Business Initiative Team which is focused on supporting women business owners and leaders in professional and personal growth.

Carrie and her husband Andy live in Ixon with their two children. They are members of St. Matthew’s Church and School in Oconomowoc, and enjoy outdoor activities and family trips up north during the summer.
