Ixon Bank Announces Promotion

Amy McNutt is Promoted to Vice President

Ixon, WI – Ixon Bank is pleased to announce Amy McNutt has been promoted from Assistant Vice President of Deposit Operations to Vice President of Deposit Operations.

Ixon Bank is deeply committed to its philosophy of growing talent and providing opportunities for advancement from within the organization. Amy joined the team at Ixon Bank in 2004 as a Teller. In 2004 she became an Accounting Assistant, and 2014 was promoted to Assistant Manager of Deposit Operations. She then became Assistant Vice President of Deposit Operations in 2016. Over the years, and with each promotion, she has graciously taken on additional management, supervisory, and training roles, contributing to Ixon Bank's overall growth and employee development.

“Amy consistently demonstrates a deep commitment and loyalty to Ixon Bank, is a strong leader, and wholly deserves the recognition that comes with the promotion to Vice President,” affirmed Dan Westrope, Chairman & CEO. “She is a model for excellent customer service, and exemplifies our core values of respect, integrity, quality and opportunity.”

In her current position, Amy plays a critical role in helping manage the staff that supports the day-to-day functions relating to our deposit products and solutions, including wires and IRA administration. Additionally, she is key to the development and implementation of new products and possesses a strong working knowledge of consumer banking regulations for deposit products and processing.
